Summary of North Carolina EXPUNCTIONS

Please use this summary of North Carolina expunctions as an initial guide to understanding the criteria and filing requirements of the various expuncions in North Carolina. This summary is intended to provide accurate, general information. However, this summary does not fully address the provisions of each expunction statute. In addition, laws and legal procedures are subject to frequent change and differing interpretations, and the North Carolina Justice Center cannot ensure the information in this summary is current, particularly beyond 2019.
A CRIMINAL RECORD often gives rise to significant barriers to gainful employment, affordable housing, family unification, and a variety of other benefits and opportunities essential to productive citizenship. For assistance in understanding the statutory barriers to particular benefits or opportunities that may arise due to a specific criminal record, please use the UNC School of Government’s Collateral Consequences Assessment Tool at http://ccat.sog.unc.edu/.

In North Carolina, an expunction is the destruction of a criminal record by court order. An expunction (also called an “expungement”) of a criminal record restores the individual, in the view of the law, to the status he or she occupied before the criminal record existed. With rare exception, when an individual is granted an expunction, he or she may truthfully and without committing perjury or false statement deny or refuse to acknowledge that the criminal incident occurred. The primary exception to this is for purposes of federal immigration. Please see North Carolina General Statutes §15A-151 for other exceptions.

Contrary to common belief, opportunities to expunge a criminal record in North Carolina are not common. Instead, criminal records eligible for expunction in North Carolina are generally limited to the following three categories:

- A first-time conviction of a nonviolent offense
- A first-time conviction of certain offenses committed before age 18/22
- A charge that was dismissed or disposed “not guilty”

This summary provides details of the following twelve expunction statutes:

- Juvenile Record………………………………… NCGS §7B-3200 ………….. [p. 5]

Also included in this summary are answers to questions regarding terms, interpretations, and procedures that frequently arise in petitioning for relief under North Carolina’s expunction laws. These frequently asked questions are located on pages 24 through 29.

The primary goal of this expunction guide is to increase access to expunction relief for North Carolinians with criminal records by providing members of the North Carolina bar with the information necessary to practice in this area of law. While the number of individuals eligible for expunction is limited by relatively rigid eligibility criteria, the vast majority of individuals actually eligible for expunction relief do not obtain it. The number of expunction orders in FY 2016/2017 is displayed below and startlingly small relative to the estimated 25 percent of adults in our state with a criminal record. If you are an attorney and find this guide helpful, I urge you to consider assisting low-income North Carolinians with pro bono or reduced-fee legal services (http://www.probono.net/nc/).

Recent Legislative Changes to Expunction Eligibility and Procedure- S.L. 2017-195

On July 28, 2017, Governor Roy Cooper signed Session Law 2017-195 Expungement Process Modifications during a signing ceremony at the State Capitol Building (he also commemorated passage of Raise the Age legislation). As outlined below, SL 2017-195 makes significant reforms to several expusion statutes. Unless otherwise noted, these changes to expunction eligibility and procedure apply to expunction petitions submitted on or after December 1, 2017. Details of these changes are provided in the relevant statute summaries. A good overview is also provided by the UNC School of Government here: https://nccriminallaw.sog.unc.edu/expanded-expunction-opportunities/

Expanded Expusion Eligibility

- The wait period for expunction of a nonviolent misdemeanor under G.S. 15A-145.5 is reduced from 15 years to 5 years.
- The wait period for expunction of a nonviolent felony under G.S. 15A-145.5 is reduced from 15 years to 10 years.
- A person can expunge dismissed charges and charges disposed “not guilty” multiple times. The “no prior expunction” criterion for expunction of a dismissed/not guilty charge under G.S. 15A-146 is eliminated.
- As long as a person has not been convicted of a felony offense, they are eligible to expunge all dismissed and “not guilty” charges. The “same 12-month period” and “same term of court” criteria for expunction of more than one charge under G.S. 15A-146 are eliminated.
- S.L. 2017-195 DID NOT change the types of convictions eligible for expunction or eliminate the “first-time” criterion.

Uniform Procedures

- Expunction petitions must be filed with the clerk of court (rather than petitioners sending petitions directly to the NCSBI).
- A person may request verification of an expunction directly from the NCAOC.
- Standard petition forms must be created by NCAOC and used to petition for all expunction relief.

Convictions Expunged After July 1, 2018, Will Be Calculated as Prior Records If Person Reoffends

- For sentencing of a subsequent conviction, a court may use a conviction expunged after July 1, 2018, to calculate prior record level.
- Prosecutors will have electronic access to all criminal records expunged after July 1, 2018. The only exception is expunction of charges disposed “not guilty”.

Criteria

1. Charge dismissed under G.S. 90-96(a) or (a1) diversionary program.
2. Not over 21 years of age at time of offense.*

Additional Information

*There is a significant discrepancy here. Statute only seems to require the 2 conditions listed here for eligibility. However, statute also requires affidavit stating that petitioner has no other convictions. If that’s the case, then much more narrow than 15A-146—and so the only time to use this is if one has already received expunction under 15A-146.

<td>NCGS 15A-145.2(c)</td>

Criteria

1. Conviction for:
   a. Misdemeanor Drug Possession (under Chapter 90, Article 5);
   b. Misdemeanor Drug Paraphernalia (under GS 90-113.22); OR
   c. Felony Possession under GS 90-95(a)(3)*
2. At least 12 months have passed since the date of conviction.
3. Petitioner was not over the age of 21 at the time of the offense.
4. Petitioner has either successfully completed drug program or will ask the court to waive this requirement.
5. Petitioner has no other felony conviction, misdemeanor conviction under Chapter 90, or any conviction related to controlled substances. **
6. No prior expunction under 15A-145.2(c).

Additional Information

*According to AOC’s interpretation, individuals convicted of felony possession under GS 90-95(a)(3) prior to 2012 are only eligible for expunction under this statute if the offense involved less than 1 gram of cocaine. Those convicted of felony possession under GS 90-95(a)(3) in 2012 and beyond are eligible for expunction no matter the quantity or the specific controlled substance. The basis of this interpretation is not captured within the text of the statute; instead it is based on a strict textual interpretation of the “effective date” provision of Section 5 of the Justice Reinvestment Act. Specifically, Section 5.(e) reads: “This section becomes effective January 1, 2012, and applies to persons entering a plea or who are found guilty of an offense on or after that date.” There is an argument to be made that the provision was focused on the portions of Section 5 that expanded eligibility for conditional discharge of first offenses and established advanced supervised release, and was not intended to deprive otherwise eligible individuals of expunction relief.

Filing Requirements

Form: AOC-CR-266
Cost: $175 (but may file indigent status fee waiver)
Required Affidavits: None

AOC has interpreted the statute to require that the petitioner have no other misdemeanor or felony convictions in order to receive an expunction under this statute. Based on the construction of the statute, there is a reasonable argument that this is an erroneous interpretation and that someone with a subsequent misdemeanor conviction unrelated to controlled substances would still be eligible for expunction. For guidance on “may” v. “shall” ambiguity see In Re Expungement for Spencer, 140 N.C. App. 776 (2000).

I have successfully persuaded courts to interpret the “may” as providing the court discretion to expunge a first-time drug conviction where an individual has a subsequent non-due misdemeanor conviction.

How to Read an ACIS Report

Criminal background reports are often difficult to interpret, reflecting the complex nature of criminal proceedings. Particularly hard to interpret are records accessed directly from the North Carolina Court System using the Automated Criminal/Infractions System (ACIS). ACIS records are accessible at each local court house either by request or by using a public terminal (see FAQ 1). ACIS relies on codes and fields that are not intuitive. The picture tutorial below highlights the information and fields relevant to petitioning for an expunction of a criminal charge or conviction. Common ACIS codes are also provided below. On the next page is a petition form completed for the specific criminal record below.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

In petitioning for relief under North Carolina’s expunction statutes, the following are frequently asked questions regarding terms, interpretations, and procedures:

1. How do I obtain a complete and accurate account of petitioner’s criminal record?
   A. Gaining access to a complete and accurate copy of a person’s criminal record is no easy task. There are several avenues to gain access to a criminal record, but each has its pros and cons:
      i. County Clerk of Court: A copy of an individual’s criminal record may be obtained at the Clerk of Court’s Office in the county in which he or she was charged with a crime. A criminal record provided by a Deputy Clerk of Court will only contain records of charges or convictions that occurred in that county. A certified copy of a criminal record is usually $25. To access a certified copy of a criminal record, you must submit form AOC-CR-314, located here: http://www.nccourts.org/forms/documents/112.pdf. However, most clerks make an “uncertified” copy available for a fraction of that fee.
      ii. Access to ACIS terminal: Direct access to the ACIS system is available through computer terminals located at local courthouses. Both attorneys and non-attorneys may conduct local and statewide name-based searches through the terminals, but be warned - the ACIS system was developed in 1981 and is notoriously hard to navigate. The Administrative Office of the Courts recently published a “citizen’s guide” to conducting searches of the ACIS system, located here: http://www.nccourts.org/training/documents/ACIS_Inquiry_RG.pdf
      iii. NC State Bureau of Investigation (SBI): An individual may request a copy of his or her statewide criminal record from the NC SBI. The individual must submit a “Right to Review” form, along with a completed fingerprint card. The cost of the request is $14. Sheriff’s departments typically charge $25 to complete a fingerprint card. The “Right to Review” form is accessible here: https://www.ncdps.gov/div/SBI/Forms/SBIRight-to-Review__FILLABLE.doc
      iv. Adverse Action: When a prospective employer denies employment to a job applicant or otherwise takes “adverse action” based on an applicant’s criminal history, the employer is usually required to provide to the applicant a copy of any criminal background report generated by a commercial provider. For more information, please visit the Fair Credit Reporting Act website here: http://www.consumer.ftc.gov/sites/default/files/articles/pdf/pdf-0096-fair-credit-reporting-act.pdf
      v. Commercial Provider: An individual may obtain a criminal background report from a commercial provider at varying prices. These can provide state and federal criminal record information but are often inaccurate.

2. How do I identify and obtain the correct petition form?
   A. A prospective petitioner or petitioner’s attorney must first determine the specific type of expunction for which a petitioner may be eligible because each type of expunction has a specific petition form. If using a digital version of this summary, one may use the hyperlinks contained under the “Filing Requirements” section for each expunction. Otherwise, one may use the form number (also contained in the “Filing Requirements” section) to obtain the specific petition form from the Clerk of Court’s Office or the Administrative Office of the Court’s (AOC) website, http://www.nccourts.org/forms/formssearch.asp (enter the form number, ex. AOC-CR-264, into the field labeled, “Form Number,” and click “Search”).

3. How do I file a completed petition for expunction?
A. A petition for expunction must be filed in the county in which the charge or conviction for which the petitioner is seeking expunction occurred. The petition must be filed with the clerk who will then send the petition to the SBI for a state and national background check. It is up to the local practices whether or not the petitioner or clerk procures a judge’s signature to authorize the NCSBI to conduct the state and national background checks. In order to determine exactly how one should file a petition for expunction in a specific county, petitioner or petitioner’s attorney should speak with a deputy clerk of court in the county. For example, some counties allow a petitioner to submit a petition to the Clerk of Court’s Office once the petitioner has completed the sections requiring biographical information, arresting agency, offense description, and motion to expunge. In those counties, the Clerk of Court will then provide notice to the District Attorney (having them complete the “certificate of service” section of the petition form), obtain the presiding judge’s signature, and mail the completed petition form and any accompanying affidavits to the SBI/AOC. However, in other counties, the petitioner is expected to not only complete the biographical, arresting agency, offense description, and motion to expunge sections, but is also expected to provide notice to the District Attorney (having them complete the certificate of service), and obtain the presiding judge’s signature before submitting the petition to the clerk. Similarly, a few counties require a certified copy of petitioner’s criminal record to be submitted with the petition for expunction (see FAQ 1). That is all to say, whether a petitioner or a petitioner’s attorney, one must learn from the Clerk of Court’s Office the specific procedures for filing a petition for expunction.

4. What is the overall process for petitioning for expunction of a criminal record?
A. Typically, a completed petition form is submitted to the Clerk of Court in the county in which the criminal incident giving rise to the criminal record for which petitioner is seeking expunction occurred. The petition is then submitted to the SBI and the AOC. In the past, some counties have required a petitioner to submit the completed petition form directly to the SBI/AOC. Session Law 2017-195 requires petitions submitted after December 1, 2017, to be filed with the clerk who will then send the petition to the SBI. The SBI conducts a state criminal background check and obtains a federal background check from the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The AOC determines and indicates in an attachment to the petition form if the petitioner has previously received an expunction. The petition form and criminal background check are returned to the Clerk of Court’s Office. As of November 2018, this process is taking 2-3 months. Once a petition for expunction is returned to a Clerk of Court’s Office, processes vary widely by county and by type of expunction. In some counties, the petition packet is provided directly to the presiding judge for all expunctions, and an order either granting or denying the petition is issued without a hearing. In other counties, notice is provided to the petitioner or petitioner’s attorney when the packet is returned from the SBI/AOC and he or she is responsible for scheduling (also called “calendaring”) a hearing before the presiding judge. And in yet other counties, the process varies by type of expunction—for example, petitions for expunction of dismissed charges are reviewed without a hearing, while petitions for expunction of nonviolent convictions are scheduled for hearing. Again, petitioner or petitioner’s attorney will need to speak to the staff at the Clerk of Court’s office in order to learn the processes specific to the county in which the petition for expunction is being filed. If an order for expunction is granted, the clerk of court erases the ACIS entry and then delivers a certified copy of the order to the NC Administrative Office of the Courts. Certified copies of the order are also delivered to the identified arresting agencies, the sheriff, the Division of Motor Vehicles, and the Department of Public Safety (both Combined Records and the State Bureau of Investigation’s Expungement Unit), which delete the records from their respective databases. The Department of Public Safety also forwards the expunction order to the FBI.
5. What is a certificate of service?
   A. Most expunction statutes require notice of the petition for expunction to be provided to the Office of the District Attorney. Accordingly, many of the petition forms have a “certificate of service” section where a representative from the Office of the District Attorney certifies with their signature that the office was properly provided a copy of the petition for expunction. Petitioner should speak to the Clerk of Court’s office to determine the specific procedures for completing the certificate of release. Again, procedures vary by county—some counties, for example, allow the petition to be submitted to the Clerk of Court’s office and the Clerk of Court’s office notifies the DA, while other counties require petitioners to notify the DA. If petitioner or petitioner’s attorney is required to provide notice on the Office of the District Attorney, he or she will need to provide the representative a copy of the petition form and accompanying materials, and then have the representative complete the certificate of service section on the original petition form.

6. How do I obtain a copy of an expunction order?
   A. Based on the changes to the expunction procedure set forth in Session Law 2017-195, copies of expungement orders are easier to obtain. When the expunction is granted, the clerk is required to provide the petitioner with a certified copy of the expunction order. There should not be an additional fee for this certified copy of the expunction order. The new law also provides a person the ability to obtain verification of the expunction of a criminal record at any time directly from the North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts. This is a verification that the expunction occurred, rather than a copy of the expunction order itself. In order to obtain a “certificate of verification of prior expunction” the person whose record was expunged may submit form AOC-G-260.

7. What if the county of disposition requires there to be a hearing on the petition?
   A. As previously mentioned, procedures for submitting a petition for expunction vary by county and type of expunction. So too vary the practices for reviewing the petitions. In many counties, upon their return from the SBI/AOC, petitions are reviewed by a judge without a formal hearing. In these counties, petitioners are not typically informed when the petition is returned from the SBI/AOC and prior to a judge’s review; instead, petitioners are informed only after a judge has granted or denied the petition for expunction. In other counties, petitioners must appear before the court in a formal hearing. In such circumstances, it is very important that the petitioner ask the Clerk of Court how to schedule the hearing on the petition. Such hearings are typically evidentiary, meaning the petitioner is given the opportunity to present evidence and arguments to demonstrate that he or she is eligible for expunction. Most of the expunction statutes require the court to grant the expunction if the client is eligible. However, NCGS 15A-145.5 Expunction of Nonviolent Offenses preserves the court’s discretion to grant or deny the petition, even where the individual is eligible for expunction. If the Office of the District Attorney opposes the petition, they will typically argue against the petition at this hearing.

8. What is the procedure for appealing or otherwise challenging an expunction decision?
   A. According to the North Carolina Court of Appeals recent decision in State v. J.C., expunctions are a criminal matter, at least for purposes of appeal. For a thorough and thoughtful discussion of the issue, please see the UNC School of Government’s post by Professor John Rubin here: https://nccriminallaw.sog.unc.edu/appeals-expunction-decisions/
9. Can an individual have an out-of-state or federal criminal record expunged under North Carolina’s expunction statutes?
   A. No. Only charges or convictions occurring under North Carolina law are eligible for expunction under North Carolina’s expunction statutes. Each state has its own statutes related to the expunction and/or sealing of criminal records.

10. Will a federal or out-of-state criminal record make an individual ineligible for expunction of charges and/or convictions that occurred in North Carolina and would otherwise be eligible for expunction?
    A. Yes, in many circumstances. A conviction under the laws of the United States or other states is treated as an “other felony or misdemeanor conviction” for purposes of expunctions in NC. Accordingly, if a specific expunction statute requires that an individual have “no other convictions,” then a federal or other state conviction will likely make that individual ineligible for relief in North Carolina. In processing each petition for expunction, the SBI obtains a federal background report from the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

11. How are Prayers for Judgment Continued (PJC’s) treated for purposes of expunction?
    A. There is no definitive answer to this question. The generally narrow nature of North Carolina’s expunction relief seems to have impacted the willingness of courts to blur the lines when it comes the nature of PJC’s for purposes of expunction. District and superior courts regularly treat PJC’s as convictions that are expungeable—meaning a PJC is potentially expungeable under NCGS 15A-145 – 15A-145.6, but is likely not expungeable under NCGS 15A-146 (expunction of dismissed charge). A related question of law is whether a prior or subsequent PJC makes an individual ineligible for expunction of a separate criminal conviction because many expunction statutes require the petitioner to have “no other conviction” or “no previous conviction.” In reviewing petitions in such circumstances, several district and superior courts have been persuaded to treat subsequent or prior PJC’s as something other than convictions and not disqualifying, and, thereby, found the petitioners to be eligible for expunctions of the traditional convictions. For more information on expunction of PJC’s, please see this article by the UNC School of Government: http://nccriminallaw.sog.unc.edu/?p=1453.

12. What are “misdemeanor traffic violations”?
    A. Based on the use of the term “traffic violations” in Chapter 20 of the General Statutes, it is likely that a “misdemeanor traffic violation” should be interpreted to mean any misdemeanor offense contained in Chapter 20 of the General Statutes, including DUI. This interpretation has prevailed in several district and superior courts.

13. When a charge appears in both District and Superior Courts (most commonly by a superseding indictment or appeal), is it necessary to submit petitions for expunction in both District and Superior Courts?
    A. No. In such circumstances, it is only necessary to file the petition for expunction in Superior Court.

14. Is the relevant misdemeanor or felony classification for purposes of expunction the classification at the time of the conviction or the current classification of the offense?
    A. There is no definitive answer to this question. All misdemeanor and felony offenses are classified for purposes of sentencing. Felonies are classified from A to I, with the most serious offenses being Class A offenses. Misdemeanors are classified A1, 1, 2, and 3, with the most serious offenses being Class A1 offenses and the least serious offenses being Class 3 offenses. Understandably, eligibility for expunction of a criminal conviction is often based on the classification of the offense. However, the expunction statutes are silent as to whether the relevant classification is the classification of the offense at the time of the conviction or the classification of the offense at the time the petition for expunction is submitted. This issue is important because the classification of an offense can change as reforms are made to the law. Such shifts can occur by targeted changes to specific offenses as occurs in every session of the legislature, or, as last occurred in 1994, as part of wholesale reform of our state’s sentencing laws. Accordingly, there will be a handful of circumstances where the classification at the time of conviction and at the time the individual petitions for expunction will be different and the petitioner’s eligibility for expunction will depend entirely upon a court’s interpretation of which classification is relevant. For example, conspiracy to commit armed robbery was a Class H offense in 1993, while conspiracy to commit armed robbery is now a Class E offense—a Class E felony is not eligible for expunction, while a Class H felony may be eligible for expunction. If petitioner would be eligible for expunction under one classification but not the other classification, please reach out to me for a general discussion of this issue at (919) 861-2061.

15. At what age are individuals charged as adults in North Carolina?
   A. In North Carolina, juvenile jurisdiction ends after age 15, meaning individuals accused of criminal offenses are automatically charged as adults beginning at age 16 (note: individuals under age 16 accused of committing certain felony offenses may be charged as adults with the consent of the juvenile court). Accordingly, records of these charges and/or convictions are not sealed as juvenile adjudications; instead, these charges and/or convictions remain on individuals’ criminal records unless expunged. Beginning in December 2019, the juvenile age for misdemeanors and Class H and I felonies will be increased from 15 to 17, meaning the vast majority of 16- and 17-year-olds accused of crimes in North Carolina will then be treated as juveniles and records of their juvenile adjudications will be treated as confidential.

16. What if an individual has dismissed charges eligible for expunction in multiple counties?
   A. The person is eligible to expunge all charges that are dismissed or disposed “not guilty”. Based on the recent change in the law allowing an individual to file multiple petitions for expunction, a person eligible to expunge dismissed charges in separate counties would simply submit separate petitions for each of the charges in the respective counties.

17. If an individual receives an order of expunction for a criminal record, what is the likelihood of that criminal record ever showing up again in a criminal background check?
   A. When a criminal record is expunged, the record is erased from the records of the court as well as any other state agencies (including the arresting agency). The Administrative Office of the Courts keeps a single file of all expunction orders that is only accessible in very limited circumstances set forth in NCGS §15A-151. Private companies that have contracted with AOC to purchase the information are also required to destroy any expunged records. Companies not doing so are potentially liable for damages under GS §15A-152 (Civil Liability for Dissemination of Certain Criminal History Information). However, more and more cases are arising where the record is being sold or otherwise transferred so far downstream that the records are not being destroyed. Accordingly, there is a significant chance that despite the record being expunged it will at some point appear on a background report. In a circumstance where the expunged record does appear on a criminal background report, the petitioner may lawfully deny the charge or conviction occurred.
However, many individuals in this circumstance have found it useful to explain that the criminal record has been expunged by court order.

18. Can an employer inquire as to whether an individual has previously received an expunction?
   A. According to North Carolina General Statutes §15A-153, a private employer or educational institution “shall not, in any application, interview, or otherwise, require an applicant for employment or admission to disclose information concerning any arrest, criminal charge, or criminal conviction of that applicant that has been expunged.” The statute also explains that an applicant need not answer such unlawful expunction inquiries if they do occur. For more information see here: http://www.ncga.state.nc.us/Sessions/2013/Bills/Senate/PDF/S91v6.pdf.

19. What if an individual is not eligible for an expunction of his or her criminal record?
   A. Many of the more than 2 million North Carolinians with criminal histories need and are deserving of relief from the collateral consequences of their criminal records. Unfortunately, due to the limited nature of expunction opportunities in NC, most of these individuals will not find meaningful relief under North Carolina’s expunction statutes. The following are potential alternative sources of legal relief:
   i. Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964: Title VII prohibits employment discrimination based on race, gender, and other protected classes. While individuals with criminal records are not a protected class, Title VII protections have been partially extended to minorities with criminal records based on a disparate impact theory. For guidance on these protections, please visit here: http://www.eeoc.gov/laws/guidance/arrest_conviction.cfm. To learn more about filing a Title VII charge of discrimination, please visit here: http://www.eeoc.gov/employees/charge.cfm.
   ii. Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964: Title VIII prohibits housing discrimination based on race, gender, and other protected classes. While individuals with criminal records are not a protected class, Title VIII protections have been partially extended to minorities with criminal records based on a disparate impact theory.
